

Workshop

Tourism, Wolf-Management and National Parks –
What can be learned from Carnivore-related tourism in the Majella- and Abruzzo National Parks in Italy?

May 26, 2018, 13:00-18:00

“Wolf’s House” Guesthouse
Majella National Park, Italy

Language: English

Expected Participants: LT&C-Members, Conservation NGOs/Experts, Tourism Business/Experts, Representatives of the region

Participation by invitation only.

Moderator: Dr. Davide Palumbo

Questions the workshop attempts to answer
(presenters will provide a short, ca 10 minutes, introduction and leave about
5 minutes within their slot for discussion):

13:00 – 14:30

Opening Speech:

Introduction and history of the region

NN, High level regional representative ?

What is LT&C and what do we want to achieve with the workshop?

Dr. Peter Prokosch, LT&C

What can we learn from the Wildlife Management in the Majella National Park?

Dr. Antonio Antonucci, Wildlife Manager, Majella National Park (INCA)

What should other countries learn from the wolf-management in Italy and what has Italy learned from experiences in other countries?

Dr. Duccio Berzi, Canis lupus NPO

14:30 – 15:00

Coffee/Tea Break

15:00 – 17:00

How does fit tourism, national parks and wolf-management together? - “

Experiences of WWF

Dr. Marco Galaverni, WWF Italy, Species and Habitat

Can the Wolf Mountains project in the trilateral national park area of the Polish-, Ukraine- and Slovakian Carpathians learn from Italy?

Piotr Nieznanski, WWF Poland, and Bartek Pirga, Bieszczadzki National Park

What are the experiences of the European Wilderness Society with tourism and carnivores?

Max Rossberg, President, European Wilderness Society

What are the latest findings of the science world on relationships between tourism, wolf-management and national parks

Dr. Andrea Gennai, and Dr.ssa Roberta Latini, Science and Research Division Abruzzo, Lazio and Molise National Park

How is the promotion of national parks towards tourists designed so that tourism becomes a supportive factor for nature conservation and wildlife management?

Dr.ssa Daniela D'Amico, Promotion and Marketing Division Abruzzo, Lazio and Molise National Park

How is the regional tourism business benefiting from national parks and wildlife management and how is it therefore supporting the protected areas?

Dr. Paolo Iannicca, Local tour operator and guide, Ecotur

In what way is tourism supporting the Majella and Abruzzo National Park, and therefore be a candidate to be profiled as an LT&C-Example?

NN, representative of the regional Tourism Board or Association

From a conservation perspective: Can the Majella and Abruzzo National Park be described as an LT&C-Example, where tourism is a supportive factor?

NN, representative of conservation NGO or national park

17:00 – 18:00

Plenum discussion and summarizing for common ground

Other Participants (LT&C-members; status March 15):

Ottar & Kirsten Nakken, Norway
Sergio Chiarandini, Italy & Thailand
Alla Pryde, Germany

(green marked: participation confirmed)